

Induction Ceremony for a New Rotarian

You have been chosen as a representative of your vocation in this Rotary Club, because we believe that you have the qualities to carry the message of Rotary to those in your vocation as well as those in other walks of life.

Rotary stands for fellowship and service in your home life, in your community life and in the cause of international goodwill and understanding.

The community will know and judge Rotary by your example in character and service, and we are confident that our Club's fellowship and service will be strengthened by your association with us.

I would remind you that the privileges of membership carry with them corresponding duties and obligations that have been explained to you by the Rotary Information committee. While you are now becoming a member of this Rotary Club, we cannot make you a true Rotarian - that is a distinction you must gain by your own efforts.

I now have pleasure in presenting you this Rotary Badge which you should wear with pride. I commend to you this literature to further your understanding of Rotary and its Object.

You have been appointed to the _____ Committee,
under Chairperson _____

Much is expected of you in help and inspiration to enable us to better serve the community.

I congratulate you and your partner _____ and offer the right hand of Rotary Fellowship.

Fellow Rotarians, join with me in extending a warm Rotary welcome to our new member.....
